

/// BIO DILLISTONE

A love child of Copenhagen, Shanghai, London and Berlin, Dillistone is the stage name of Morten Aamodt, a Danish born producer and songwriter who learnt found his sound in the post-World War II bunker studios and clubs of China. He first gained exposure online through well received remixes, most notably for Dua Lipa, before focusing more on song writing and originals. Since then, Dillistone has amassed over 100 million streams, and more than 1 million monthly listeners on Spotify.

In 2022 Dillistone is embarking on a new artist journey, bringing his melancholic dance from studio to stage. After winning the Danish KarriereKanon 2022, his song 'Haunted' became P3 Uundgåelige, reached #1 of the Danish Shazam Charts and peaked No. 5 on the airplay charts. Alongside his own project, Dillistone also produces and writes for international artists, which has landed him a top 10 radio hit in Germany.
